

At the eve of the Europe day , the European board of the AEDE at this meeting in Luxembourg on May 7th, 2016, wishes to remind, in these difficult times for the European Union, the way traversed since the signature of the Treaty of Rome to reconcile and pacify our continent.

The AEDE invites the European people to find the hope to commit as their elders did and to build a stronger federal Europe, more interdependent, example of peace and respect of the Rights of any person in a world in crisis.
